

Why Trust Your Over-Sized Load To Anyone Else?

CABOT, PA... You've got that great load on your trailer, now you need an escort to help you safely get it to its destination. Who do you call? You'll want someone who knows the United States, has experience in the trucking industry and much, much more.

Who do you call? Why not call Jim Stickney Truck Escort Service? Located in Western Pennsylvania, Jim Stickney Truck Escort Service is owned and operated by a former Professional Truck Driver. Jim Stickney may be as he says, "New as an escort driver, but not to being escorted. I'm just changing my role in the trucking business so that I can still be around the friends I have made over the years."

Safety is a high priority to Stickney. He grew up around trucks and as a Professional Driver for 41 years he has a spotless record of 4 million miles with no citations of any kind and no accidents. He's been a company driver and an owner-operator, delivering a wide variety of loads all of the country.

Jim Stickney takes pride in his escort equipment. His 1997 Dodge extended cab is kept in tip-top shape and he carries all the necessary safety equipment and tools for emergency repairs. He stays current with all the rules and regulations required by drivers and escorts. Stickney is certified insured in Pennsylvania, Virginia, New York, and Kansas. He also offers High Pole Service.

Jim Stickney Truck Escort Service is a full time business available to go anywhere, any time, at very competitive rates.
